

Alternative Base Plates for S-Series Compressors

To strengthen the supply chain stability and minimize the possible risks in the future, Secop has decided to secure a second source for S-Series compressors' base plates.

Approvals

This change has no influence on material, dimensions, etc., there is thus no impact to any approval or to our customers.

Timing

To ensure the proper traceability, the new alternative base plate will be marked with N, see Figure 2. Alternative base plates will be introduced in the first quarter of 2024.
